SECOND 'BULLDOG' TRIAL ENDS IN FIASCO

ISSUE No. 36

LET JOE GO!

"ANOTHER FINE MESS YOU'VE GOT US INTO!" These must surely have been the first words spoken by Home Secretary William Whitelaw to Sir Thomas Hetherington, the Director of Public Prosecutions, when he learned that the second trial of Joe Pearce, Editor of the Young National Front magazine Bulldog, on six Race Relations Act charges had ended in fiasco.

Whitelaw (the Oliver Hardy of the political world) had hoped that Hetherington (the Stan Laurel of the legal world) could be trusted to secure the conviction of 20 year old Joe Pearce as a fitting culmination to his Home Office inquiry into racist groups which he instigated last February.

Instead of the quick trial and conviction which Whitelaw hoped he could present to hate-crazed multi-racialists as a blood-offering, the prosecution of Joe Pearce tottered from farce to fiasco.

TWO TRIALS

On two occasions — the first in August, the second in September — Joe Pearce stood alone in an Old Bailey dock facing the same six Race Relations Act "incitement" charges.

On both occasions no verdicts were arrived at and the juries were discharged.

The silly saga began last March. The authorities had long been prompted by the Jewish Board of Deputies to prosecute Joe for his frank comments about the multi-racial mad-house Britain has become.

But the authorities were worried about dragging a teenager into an Old Bailey dock, so they waited until March — one month after Joe's 20th birthday, before serving five Race Act Summonses on him.

These Summonses related to issues 15 to 19 of Bulldog. (Issue 15 had been published 16 months previously!)

Joe was not intimidated by this, and he published a further four DPP's Counsel, Mr. Tudor-Price QC, obtained an "expedited trial" to ensure that Joe would be in the dock within two weeks, rather than within 12 months, as is normal.

At Joe's first trial, which started on 24th August, before Mr. Justice Herod (no relation, it is understood, to the King who treated innocent youngsters rather harshly!) it transpired that the Prosecution had decided to drop three of the nine charges "in order to save time".

Joe's Counsel demolished the Prosecution case in a long and detailed speech and the Judge — though obviously hostile to Joe personally and politically — gave a reasonably balanced and fair summing up.

The upshot was that after four and a half hours' deliberation the Jury was unable to reach a verdict — even a 10 to 2 majority verdict on any one of the six charges. So the Jury was discharged and Joe was released on unconditional bail to await a re-trial.

It is noteworthy that when four Black alleged leaders of last year's riot in Bristol achieved a similar 'hung jury' outcome of their trial, the Attorney-General, Sir Michael Havers, decided that "in the interests of good race relations" they would not have to face a re-trial. More recently the England cricketer Ian Botham was let off after a 'hung jury' trial.

THIRD TRIAL?

Joe's re-trial commenced on 28th September. On the second day it was discovered that the original committal proceedings had not been carried out under the terms of the 1980 Magistrates' Court Act.

Thus the trial was a nullity, the jury was discharged and again Joe was released on unconditional bail.

It is said to be "most unusual" for an accused to have to face three

NF marchers gather at Smithfield to support Joe on the first day of his trial trials on the same charges — but we have no doubt that the malicious elements who instigated the decision to prosecute Joe will push for another re-trial.

If they do, then prosecution will be clearly seen to be persecution.

All patriots must immediately write to their MP, the Home Secretary and the Attorney-General to demand:

"End this vendetta — LET JOE GO!"

ASIAN FAKED 'N.F. SKINHEAD' ATTACK

SOUTHALL Asian student Satwinder Sindh wanted to dodge his examinations, so he hit on the wheeze of scratching his stomach with the initials "NF" and then reporting to the Police that he had been a victim of a "racial attack" by Skinheads.

The story of the "racist atrocity" was splashed on the front page of the Ealing Gazette earlier this year and was used as propaganda by groups campaigning to get the National Front banned or further restricted.

Later a Court forensic expert, Dr. David Paul, gave evidence that the straight cuts on Sindh's stomach could not have been made during a struggle.

In September Sindh was convicted of wasting Police time and giving false reports and was fined, with costs, a total of £350 by Ealing Magistrates.

Sindh's false report was undoubtedly a contributory cause of the mob attack by Asians on the Hambrough Tavern, Southall, on 5th July, which on that night was filled with White youths attending a rock concert.

On 31st December last year the Jewish Telegraph reported that a "closed" meeting of the Jewish Board of Deputies was told that members of the Jewish community were wasting Police time by reporting bogus "Nazi attacks".

SUPPORT NICK GRIFFIN

CAMBRIDGE law graduate Nicholas Griffin began his campaign as the NF candidate in the Croydon North-West by-election (Polling Day: 22nd October) with the issue of 25,000 copies of a hard-hitting constituency newsletter called Croydon Patriot.

This will be followed up by the postal issue of a well-illustrated election address to every household in the constituency.

Mr. Griffin's campaign will be culminated by a "British Jobs for British Workers!" march through the constituency on Saturday 17th October (see notice below).

Daily help is urgently needed from all NF members and supporters in respect of leafletting, loudspeaker tours, canvassing and posterage. Phone 01-684 0271.

STOP PRESS: DEBATE CANCELLED

The Union Society of Cambridge University has cancelled a debate set for 12th October at which NF National Activities Organiser Martin Webster was to have opposed a "Ban the NF" motion. The cancellation followed intensive Jewish and Left Wing groups opposed to the granting of free speech to the NF.

No. 36 OCTOBER 1981

THE PENALTIES OF RIDING A TIGER

A FEW weeks ago 'moderate' leaders of the Labour Party and their supporters in the mass media expressed their outrage when a crowd of extreme Left Wing pro-Benn supporters shouted down Denis Healey at a rally in Birmingham.

If Labour 'moderates' now find that their freedom of speech is being attacked by the Red Rentamob then they only have themselves to blame. The leaders of the Labour Party were quite happy to condone the violent anti-free speech activities of the Rentamob when they were directed (under the banner of the 'Anti-Nazi League') against the National Front.

In late 1977 the Labour Party provided a committee room in the House of Commons for the inaugural meeting of the ANL and gave over an entire TV Party Political Broadcast to an ANL anti-NF diatribe. Thereafter the ANL proceeded to deploy vicious mob violence against lawful NF meetings and marches designed to stifle the NF's rights of free speech and assembly.

But now the Labour Party has come to realise that it was riding a tiger because the alliance of ultra Left factions — within and without the Labour Party — which comprised the ANL are now starting to use the same methods of criminality and violence against Labour 'moderates' as were previously deployed against the NF.

It is because Labour's leadership held our freedom to be of no importance that they now find their own threatened.

NF News seeks to persuade its readers to feel angry about the evils of multi-racialism and to direct their anger solely at the corrupt politicians who created a racial problem in Britain, and not to the Immigrant people in general. "Racialism" is NOT unlawful — only "racial hatred".

TIME AND AGAIN—WE GOT IT RIGHT!

NATIONAL FRONT NEWS IS NOT ONLY UP-TO-THE-MOMENT WITH ITS NEWS COVERAGE — IT IS OFTEN AHEAD OF THE NEWS. OUR WARNINGS AND PREDICTIONS HAVE OFTEN BEEN CALLED "ALARMIST" . . . "EXTREMIST" . . . "TROUBLEMAKING". AN ATTEMPT TO SHUT US UP BY MEANS OF A RACE RELATIONS ACT PROSECUTION WAS MADE IN 1979. BUT STUDY OF PAST ISSUES OF THE PAPER IN RELATION TO SUBSEQUENT TRENDS SHOWS THAT OUR PREDICTIONS AND WARNINGS WERE WHOLLY CORRECT. SEE FOR YOURSELF . . .

MILITARISATION OF THE POLICE

NATIONAL FRONT NEWS has consistently reported that the greatest single fear of the Police in this country is the outbreak of Race War.

In issue No. 17, which was produced before the Toxteth Riots, before the Brixton Riots and even before the Bristol Riots it was reported that:

"The Police are understandably terrified of the prospect of race war. There have been enough horrific instances of savage attacks on Police officers by Black mobs over the past year or so (on 'political' as well as 'non-political' occasions, and particularly in London, Birmingham, Wolverhampton and Manchester) for the Police to know that they are the prime targets of Black street-fighters."

We predicted that the Police would react by engaging in Community Relations activities, but also by shedding the traditional role of the 'British Bobby on the beat' in favour of a Continental or American style gun carrying riot police force.

In 1980 in issue No. 26 we showed a picture of how the police of 1985 might appear — far from being an exaggeration, it seems that such protective clothing is already available to police forces.

The prediction which turned into fact most rapidly was depicted in the advertisement taken from International Defence Review which showed policemen wearing riot helmets and firing gas canisters at a rioting mob. This appeared in April 1981 and within months gas was being used on the streets of mainland Britain to control rioters in Toxteth.

DEVELOPMENT OF RACE WAR

IN ISSUE No. 4 of National Front News produced five years ago this month we reported how a gang of Asians were able to alter the normal course of justice in the interests of Race Relations:

"A mob of Asians besieged the Police Station in Southall, Middlesex. The mob demanded the release of two men who had been arrested during a riot staged in protest against the 'racial' murder of a young Sikh called Chaggar. (Chaggar was in fact killed by a MULTI-RACIAL gang!)

"Such a challenge should have been met by a total mobilisation of the Police." Instead . . . "the two men were freed and were carried away in triumph shoulder-high by the laughing alien rabble."

In the same issue two other incidents of Blacks being allowed to break the law were described all the field of race relations. "Every such person is a vigilante in the WISC scheme."

The local police believed this was an attempt to set up a Black private army and called in Scotland Yard to investigate.

However by the time Scotland Yard appeared on the scene, the local WISC leader was screeching "Police harassment!" and Scotland Yard promised an inquiry not into the possible setting up of black terror groups but into the alleged Police harassment.

Asian Rioters triumph over police, NF News No. 4, September 1976

It was this type of backdown by the Police in the face of organised black violence that led NF News to predict in issue 14 in June 1978:

"Officers of the British Raj in India used to say: 'The natives are either at your feet or at your throat.' As the huge Asian community in Britain daily grows more numerous there are clearly terrible days ahead."

In the wake of the Bristol Riots NF News predicted that repatriation was the only solution to multi-racial anarchy. "A cruel policy? Not so cruel as Race War." Since then we have had Brixton, Toxteth, Ealing, Finsbury Park, New Cross etc.

BRITAIN'S ECONOMIC CATASTROPHE

NATIONAL FRONT NEWS has regularly shown how politicians are prepared to sacrifice Britain's economic future for the benefit of international finance or simply for short-term political advantage.

In August 1977 North Sea Oil was being heralded as Britain's economic salvation, but we reported:

"Britain's oil is going to be squandered as rapidly as possible for the benefit of foreigners to keep the LAB/LIB/CON circus in power as long as possible."

We can now see that the North Sea Oil Boom has become a sick joke, the oil companies have benefited but not the British people.

In issue No. 20 on the front page under the headline "Their Crisis, Our Opportunity" we said:

"So as we approach a decade likely to see more than three million people jobless, the agencies set up to cope with their needs, the needs of their families, the needs of the elderly and the needs of the sick are being contracted."

We were then accused of being alarmist, but with unemployment now at 3 million, who can say our alarm was unjustified?

NF News No. 14 June 1978

PARLIAMENTARY PARTIES IN £5M STATE GRANTS SWIZ

THE "all-party" Hansard Committee has recently come out with a proposal to give up to £5 million of taxpayers' money to the main political parties. For several years now the Conservative, Labour and Liberal party politicians have been looking for a method to help themselves to a part of the national income.

The "need" for this has been rapidly increasing as the size of their membership and the volume of donations has been shrinking and all three parties have been sliding towards bankruptcy.

The Labour Party's financial state is now described as "critical", while even with the large donations from big business the Conservative Party is experiencing serious economic difficulties and has recently had to substantially reduce their staff.

This latest report is interesting in that it makes little mention of which parties are to be included in this scheme for state aid. Previous reports, such as the Houghton report have gone into considerable detail as to how it was to be decided as to which parties were to receive aid.

Ingenious formulae were worked out, some quite blatantly and openly designed to avoid the possibility of the National Front receiving financial aid. No doubt this omission will be rectified before the Government adopts any scheme for cash aid to political parties.

The report does however have a novel suggestion as to how the money is to be allocated between the political parties. Its suggestion is that for every £2.00 contributed to a "duly qualified" political party, the State should make a matching payment of £2.00 to the national headquarters of that party, with a limit of £5 million for the total cost of the scheme.

Quite how this scheme would fit in with the massive Trade Union contributions to the Labour Party and the equally massive business contributions to the Conservative Party is not quite clear. What is clear is that such a system would be open to considerable abuse, not to mention outright fraud.

However the main political parties are becoming so desperate to prop up their ailing party machines that it seems inevitable that some such scheme will soon be implemented and whatever scheme is adopted we can be sure it will exclude the National Front.

N.F. IN HUNT FOR RED THUGS

A VICIOUS attack on a small group of NF News sellers was mounted by a Red 'Hit squad' in Kingsbury, North London, on Saturday 22nd August.

The NF salesmen were assaulted with pick-axe handles, iron bars and shovels by the gang who suddenly emerged from an alley.

Several NF salesmen were injured, including Mr. Graham John, NF North & West London Regional Organiser. NF Haringey Organiser Paul Nash was hospitalised after his head was gashed open and one of his hands slashed.

Police say they are anxious to prosecute the thugs but say they need help in identifying those involved.

LABOUR PARTY STALL

It is alleged that some members of the gang were in the area — hanging around a Labour Party stall — a few weeks previously. We publish photographs taken of the Labour stall on that occasion.

Some of the people in the pictures may have information concerning the attack. Can you help identify any of them so that the Police can contact them?

EXPOSED: HOW JEWISH HATEMONGERS SUBVERT FREE SPEECH IN BRITAIN

SEVERAL of the resolutions on the Agenda of the National Front's Annual General Meeting this year made reference to the activities of an organisation which few ordinary British people have ever heard of, but which, in fact, is one of the most powerful pressure groups in the country: The Board of Deputies of British Jews.

The Board describes itself as "the representative body of British Jewry", and gives the impression that it is mainly concerned with the provision of welfare services and educational facilities for members of the Jewish community in Britain.

While the Board does indeed provide such services, it is also deeply involved in political work — in deploying the massive power of the Jewish community in the fields of finance, the media and politics — to provide special privileges for the Jewish community in Britain and to suppress any opposition to Zionism (Jewish nationalism) and to the Zionist state called Israel.

ENDLESS CASH

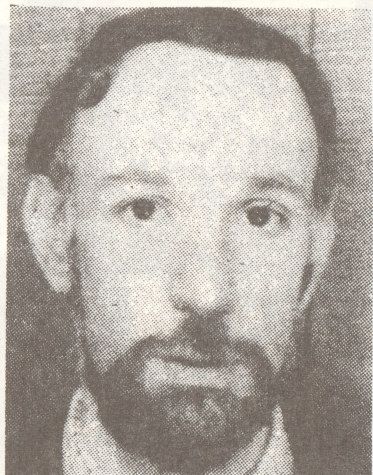

Theoretically, Zionism preaches that all Jews should go to live in Israel, but in fact if all Jews did that Israel would collapse as its economy depends on the ability of Jewish communities throughout the world to remit endless supplies of cash.

Israel also depends on rich and powerful Jewish communities in the United States, Britain, France and elsewhere to exert influence on the governments of those nations to ensure that they back Israel in her endless war against Arab nations.

For the Jewish communities in countries outside Israel to be able to continue to carry out their supportive role, it is essential that those countries do not become the kind of state that Israel is — nationalistic and racialistic — otherwise they might act to prevent themselves being used as a milch-cow by an alien power.

It is for this reason that the Board of Deputies of British Jews maintains a relentless war against any organisation or individual in Britain seeking to promote British nationalism and racialism.

This is the reason why the Board regards the National Front as its number one enemy and maintains a relentless campaign of subversion and repression against it through its contacts in the Parliamentary parties, the Civil Service, the Police and the mass media.

It is mainly as a result of pressure instigated by the Board that most local Councils refuse to hire halls to the NF for meetings, why NF marches are banned and NF newspaper sellers are frequently harassed by the Police, why newspapers and broadcasting networks continually run anti-NF smear campaigns, and why the infamous Race Relations Act is on the Statute books.

Traditionally the Board likes to keep its hand in these matters hidden, but in recent times the Board's activities have increasingly come into the open — hence the references to its activities in this year's NF AGM resolutions.

In February of this year the Home Secretary announced he was setting up a Home Office inquiry into racist groups such as the NF, and into "racist attacks" on members of minority ethnic groups.

The Home Secretary's announcement was prompted by lobbying from the Joint Campaign Against Racism — a 'front' organisation set up by the Board of Deputies after the Board decided to distance itself from the Anti-Nazi League — another group which the Board helped to found.

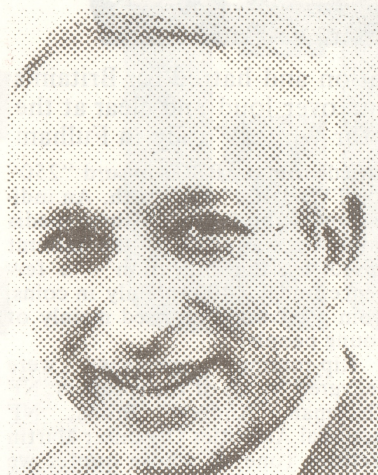

HOME OFFICE ZIONIST

This Home Office inquiry resulted in the NF being subjected to a sustained amount of State repression, especially on the part of the Police, and a mass of media propaganda designed to try and associate the party with "racial attacks".

It was not considered insignificant by NF members, therefore, when the Jewish Chronicle revealed on 31st July that the head of the Home Office department dealing with "race relations" matters is a Zionist-Jew, Neville Nagler.

The Jewish Chronicle revealed that statements made by Cabinet Ministers on racist activity in Britain are largely based on information provided by the Home Office department run by Mr. Nagler.

It also stated that "Jewish organisations such as the Board of Deputies contact Mr. Nagler's division concerning the provisions of the Race Relations Act".

Currently the Board is mobilising its resources to try and pressure the famous Union Society of Cambridge University to call off its invitation to NF National Activities Organiser Martin Webster to speak in a debate on 17th October in opposition to the motion: "This House would ban the National Front".

"BAN THE N.F."

In furtherance of the Board's policy of acting to deny NF spokesmen any facility to exercise free speech, the Board's President, Greville Janner, MP (himself a past President of the Cambridge Union Society), has mobilised a campaign to pressurise all the notable people invited to propose the 'ban the NF' motion to refuse their invitations. Without a proposer, there can be no debate.

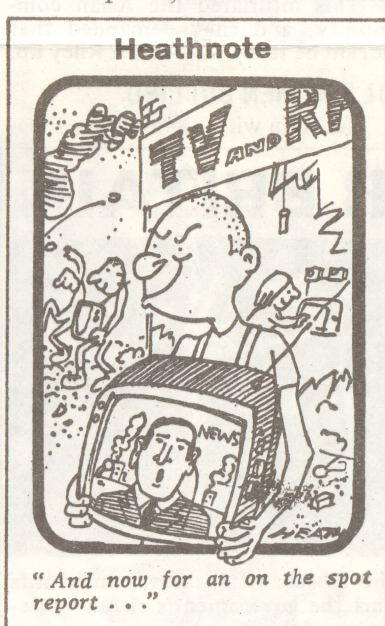

Janner has also attempted to induce the Union Society to withdraw its invitation to Mr. Webster by acting to sabotage all other debates being organised by the Society this term. He has contacted all proposers and opposers of all the other debates that have been arranged, asking them to withdraw in protest against the invitation to Mr. Webster.

Not only does the Board oppose freedom of speech where the National Front is concerned, but academic freedom also. The campaign to try and get NF Chairman Andrew Brons sacked from his job as a lecturer at Harrogate College of Further Education by means of riotous demonstrations against him outside the college was instigated by Jewish student groups which enjoy the patronage of the Board of Deputies.

HOW THEY LIE TO US, DAY AFTER DAY

HOW many people carefully read every item in their daily newspaper — not just the headlines and first paragraphs of news reports, but also advertisements and cartoons?

Most people do little more than 'scan' their papers. However, peoples' sub-conscious minds have a capacity for absorbing more information and impressions than their conscious minds are aware of.

This is the reason why advertising pays. The mass of people can be 'conditioned' into holding a 'positive attitude' for a particular product even where they "never bother to read advertisements".

The mind conditioning processes developed by advertising specialists are now fully utilised by all the various agencies that are determined to try and brainwash the British people to accept Immigration and race-mixing.

We reproduce some examples of this propaganda 'wallpaper' which invades our minds every time we open a newspaper.

WHITE MUGGER TYPICAL?

"The strong arm of the law doesn't hesitate to land on a thug who's just nicked an old lady's purse" declares the opening paragraph of a Metropolitan Police recruiting advertisement. So far, so good. We all agree that people who rob old ladies are evil.

But the picture employed to depict a typical arrest of a typical mugger shows a White youngster being 'nicked'.

It is true that White people perpetrate muggings. But it is also true that in the London area it is West Indian youngsters who are disproportionately involved in that kind of offence.

Thus the picture portrays an incident which is not, in fact, typical. When that is considered together with the picture showing the Policeman having a friendly chat to an innocent-looking multi-racial group — we realise that the purpose of the advertisement is to push a political notion into the mind of the public.

Possibly the pressures exerted by the Community Relations lobby made it impossible for the Police to show a Black man as the mugger.

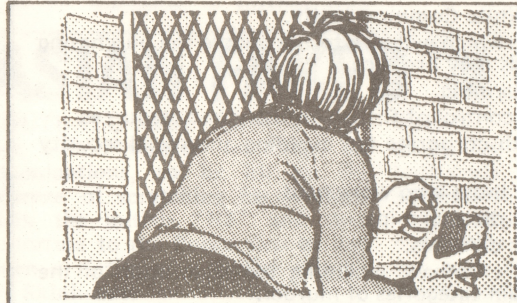

If so, then the same kind of pressures may account for the fact that a White youth is depicted as a typical rioter at Moss Side in the advertisement for steel mesh windows.

White people did join the Moss Side riots — but does anybody seriously dispute the paramount role played by that area's notorious West Indian gangs?

The Heath cartoon we reproduce was just one of more than a score of cartoons produced by him and other cartoonists depicting White youngsters as being the ringleaders of the recent rioting and looting.

White youngsters were involved in the recent troubles, but the campaign to insinuate that they constituted the principal rioting element was a politically-motivated attempt to distort the public's perception of the truth.

We invite readers to send us other examples of the mind-benders' work.

As used at Moss Side.

Protect your property with Meshlite anti-vandal glazing. Tough polyester reinforced with steel mesh, Meshlite lets in all the light you need, but keeps out boots, bottles, bricks and petrol bombs. Meshlite looks good and is quickly erected — an effective protection against riots in your street.

ASIANS ACCEPTED 48 HOUR PACK AND GO 'ORDER'

An Asian with a "We are not amused" look shows one of the bogus 'Home Office' letters

ONE of the reasons advanced by multi-racialists for claiming that the repatriation of Immigrants could not be implemented is that the Immigrants would not willingly comply with an order to quit Britain.

This notion has been brilliantly demolished — at any rate in the case of Asians — by a hoaxer who has issued scores, possibly hundreds, of bogus deportation orders to Asians in various parts of Britain.

The hoax letters were printed on what appeared to be genuine House of Commons notepaper, and bore a faked signature of Home Secretary William Whitelaw. The letters were posted in official OHMS envelopes from Swansea.

Part of the text of the letters read:

"I hereby inform you that by virtue of an Order in Council made today at 10 a.m. you are required to leave the territory of the United Kingdom within 48 hours of receipt of this notice.

EMBARKATION

"You are hereby instructed to report to your nearest Police Station between 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. where you will receive a travel warrant to port of embarkation."

The letter went on to tell recipients that they were to hand over their house keys and all deeds to property to the Police.

They were also told that each member of their family would only be allowed to take one suitcase with them, and that any deviation from these orders would result in imprisonment prior to deportation.

Newspapers in Bristol and Wolverhampton reported that many Asians immediately began to pack their bags, while others went to their local Police stations.

Mahindar Singh, 23, residing in Bristol, said:

"It made me very mad. I was getting ready — then I heard it was a hoax. My cousin went to the Police station with his letter. With the official stamp and envelope, he thought it was real."

Leader of Bristol's 3,000 Sikhs, Mukhtyar Singh Bhakard, said:

"The initial reaction has been shock, confusion and fright. Our people don't know the British law. They think it is going to happen soon, and then this is it. There has been so much publicity on this subject."

A National Front spokesman denied all knowledge of the letters.

"IF YOU LOVE YOUR RACE, NATION AND FAMILY—YOU MUST HATE, HATE, HATE THOSE WHO WOULD DESTROY THEM"

—MARTIN WEBSTER

LOVE for the British race and nation and hatred for Britain's enemies was the message that came over loud and clear at the National Front's "Defend Rights for Whites!" rally in Fulham on Sunday 30th August.

The NF had planned to hold a march through the area but this was prevented by a Police/Home Office ban on all marches in London which extended for a period of 28 days.

In a desperate bid to ingratiate themselves with the riot-prone Black community, the authorities exempted the notorious West Indian Notting Hill 'Carnival' from the scope of the ban.

News that the NF's march had been banned had the inevitable effect of cutting down the number of people who attended the rally, but even so more than 800 people turned up at Fulham Broadway.

Media reports of the NF turnout varied from the BBC's absurd "250" to ITV's "400" half-truth. An indication of the falsity of these media estimates was given by the amount raised by the collection — a few pence under £400, mainly in coins, from a crowd comprised mainly of young people!

Rip-roaring speeches were delivered by all of the speakers: NF Chairman Andrew Brons; NF National Activities Organiser Martin Webster (one of whose quotes we use as our headline); Young National Front Organiser Joe Pearce and the NF's Croydon NW by-election candidate Nick Griffin.

It was a fine day for the NF in Fulham.

A FINE DAY IN FULHAM . . .

RACE LAW QUISLINGS PICK ON DAVID RILEY

IF EVER proof was needed that the purpose of the Race Relations Act is to provide Immigrants with special privileges and to intimidate British patriots, then such proof has been provided by the authorities in their treatment of David Riley, Chairman of the National Front Branch in Accrington, Lancashire.

As we reported in a previous issue, Mr. Riley has begun a campaign of opposition to applications for permission to convert houses in residential areas into hot-food take-away shops.

The tactics employed by Mr.

Riley were quite simple and open.

Whenever he got to hear of any such application (and in his area they seem to come exclusively from Asians and other Orientals) he would immediately issue a leaflet to local residents warning them of the application and inviting them to exercise their rights to oppose planning permission by writing to the Planning Department at the Town Hall.

By all accounts numerous local residents took heed and deluged the Town Hall with objections. In several cases planning applications were rejected — though the Planning Department always declared that Mr. Riley's campaign had "nothing to do" with their decision!

This infuriated the Asian community, and they demanded that action be taken to shut Mr. Riley up.

OLD WOMEN BULLIED

To begin with, Community Relations bullies started calling on elderly women residents who had supported petitions organised by Mr. Riley.

Finding that they could not frighten his supporters, the bullies decided to go for Mr. Riley direct. Thus on 11th August the Commission for Racial Equality (the Race Board) issued a County Court Summons against him.

This alleged that Mr. Riley had attempted to induce Hyndburn Borough Council and/or its Planning Department to discriminate on the grounds of race against two applicants for a change of use for their premises, contrary to Section 20 of the Race Relations Act.

'CRIMINAL' OFFENCE

In addition to this Civil action, Mr. Riley has been served, at the end of September, with four Summonses alleging that leaflets he issued in connection with his campaign constituted "matter likely to incite racial hatred" contrary to Section 5 of the Act — a 'criminal' offence.

"I am not intimidated by these proceedings," said Mr. Riley. "I shall contest them vigorously."

THE N.F. MARCHES FOR BRITAIN

TWO successful local marches were staged by regional organisations of the National Front during August — in Salford and in Chatham.

"Stop Immigration — Start Repatriation!" was the theme of the march in Salford organised by the NF's NW England Regional Council.

A threatened Red attempt to "smash" the event failed to materialise, so the 200 strong march, led by NF Chairman Andrew Brons, went off peacefully.

An equally peaceful march was organised by Kent NF Regional Council through Chatham to oppose the closure of the naval dockyards and the government's virtual closure of the Royal Navy.

This march was led by NF National Directorate members Ian Anderson, Joe Pearce and Nick Griffin, and was supported by 200 members.

PLEASE NOTE THE NF's NEW ADDRESS

FROM October onwards, the new address of the National Front will be 50 Pawsons Road, Croydon, Surrey, CRO 2QF.

NF News readers who have been supporting the party for more than six years will recognise the address, for it was used by the party from 1972 until early 1976.

The big advantage of the 'new' premises is that the party can operate at the building under its own name and can therefore once again have its name and address included in the telephone directory.

Previously the party was unable to establish an official address and was obliged to advertise only a Post Office Box number.

Work is now in hand to redecorate the premises and to construct a bookshop facility which will carry, among a big stock of books of interest to Nationalists, a full range of Historical Review Press publications.
